

3rd Annual Union County

World Peace and Friendship Fair

Peace begins on the inside...

Commemorating the anniversary of the atomic bombings of Hiroshima & Nagasaki and promoting a culture of peace

Sun, August 6, 2006

Noon to 6 pm

The Clock Park,

Cranford, NJ

North Ave. (Rt. 28)

An afternoon of music,
performances, art, kids' activities,
information, and inspiration

Music by: Kathleen Williamson, Catherine Moon, Ray Korona Band,
Tom Hampton, Jim Cimino, The NJ Industrial Union Council Solidarity Singers, Interior Decorating & more . . .

Non-Denominational Blessing of the Animals 12 PM Bring your pets!

Humor: political jokes (open mic)

Speakers: Larry Hamm, Barry Seidman, Steve Ember, Halima Abdulghani and more . . .

Children's face painting, peace & cooperation games, puppet show

Poetry & prose by Katherine Watt . . .

Tribal Fusion Belly Dancing by Serpentina

a Speak-Out (open mic) and a Giveaway (free stuff)

Art, crafts, jewelry, books, activities, yoga, reiki, and performances throughout the day, with a concluding drum circle for peace...

Sponsored by Union County Peace Council, Word Out! and the Hiroshima/Nagasaki Remembrance Day Committee

For more information, visit us on the web: One day our website will go back online - really!
Please feel free to donate so we can get it running again! www.unioncountypeacecouncil.org or e-mail: unioncountypeacecouncil@gmail.com